What to know when on a Nile Cruise

Food on board

- ❖ Accommodation aboard the Nile cruise is entirely based on full board basis.
- ❖ (All meals are included) mostly in an open buffet manner with many varieties, depending on type and quality of the cruise boat you have selected; these meals are served with a fixed timetable each day.
- ❖ Tea and coffee are available on board, served every day around 5:00 pm to 5:30. Other drinks are offered in the bar area are with additional cost.

Dress Code

- ❖ During the daytime, while touring, you can wear whatever you really like, (Shorts are ok) though due to the extreme heat it is recommended you wear lightweight clothes.
- ❖ While relaxing on board, and indoors, you may wear shorts and swimming costumes if you wish.
- ❖ Breakfast and lunch can be taken dressed like this, but for dinner, please wear smarter clothes! But beware of too much exposure to the sun! Apply plenty of high factor sunblock!

Nightlife

- ❖ Every day there is an entertainment program, which differs from one boat to the other. On most cruise ships the first day is usually a cocktail party, presented and run by the boat manager, where they offer free drinks and introduce the senior staff on board.
- ❖ This party is also known as “The manager’s party”, where the manager introduces his crew to the passengers onboard. It is advised to wear smart casual clothes during this cocktail.
- ❖ A 2-Another night there is a “Galabia party”, where you will be encouraged to get Egyptian outfits and wear the local Galabia. To buy a Galabia, it will cost you around 50-70 LE, but if you do not wish to buy one, you can hire one from the bazaar shop located onboard.
- ❖ If you choose to buy your Galabia from outside the boat There are many bazaars outside the Temples that you will be visiting during your cruise. Don’t forget to haggle hard!
- ❖ -Another night will have a Nubian show, where you will see Nubian dancers and singers in their local outfit.
- ❖ -The last evening’s entertainment usually has a belly dancing show, a juggler’s show (whirling dervishes) with local singers and bands.

Health and Safety onboard Egypt Nile Cruises:

- ❖ All Nile cruises are equipped with safety features and life jackets are normally placed under your cabin bed.
- ❖ You should avoid drinking large amounts of alcohol especially if you have equilibrium problems. You are not just putting yourself at risk but also the other guests and staff too.
- ❖ People with equilibrium problems should not spend too much time on deck at night, on a fast moving ship; it is dangerous in case you fall over.
- ❖ Smoking in bed is dangerous; the mattresses are very flammable
- ❖ People who tend to sleepwalk should never take a cabin with a balcony, an inside cabin with a window would be far safer.
- ❖ Make sure that you know where the muster stations are, in case you have to abandon ship.
- ❖ If you get sick whilst on board, some cruise boats have a resident doctor on board. If not, they have doctors assigned in each town that can be called on in case of emergency.

Nile Cruise other useful tips:

- ❖ Firstly after checking-in at a cruise, it is advisable to leave your valuables in your rooms' safety deposit box. As all cabins have a private safe!
- ❖ If you wish to buy any items from the shops on board, the opportunity for shopping is generally limited due to the small size of these shops. But on the other hand, you will get plenty of time to check what you are buying, and haggle over the price!
- ❖ To call home, most of the cruise boats offer telephone facilities onboard, but the sound quality is not as good as onshore.
- ❖ We would recommend visiting a bank to change your money, before cruising, as most of the boats do not offer to exchange money facilities and you will not get access to onshore banks while you are cruising.
